New Middle College Program for MDUSD Students

Information Nights

Wednesday March 16, 2016 7pm Mt. Diablo HS Library
Wednesday March 23, 2016 7pm Ygnacio Valley HS Library

This new program will be starting fall semester 2016 for 30 eleventh grade students (current 10th graders).

Housed at Diablo Valley College, Middle College students will take three high school courses taught by MDUSD teachers. Middle College students will then take the rest of their courses at DVC with other community college students, earning both high school and college credit.

Find out about this exciting new program including student profile, admission process and timelines, student expectations, a sample school week for a Middle College student, and more at our informational nights listed above.
